

The Moana Jr Parent Information Sheet

Students 4th through 8th grade interested in auditioning will pick up an audition packet from the music room available Friday Nov 19. This will have all required information for students interested in auditioning including character list. Completed audition packets with payment (Cash, Check, Venmo) will be collected on Dec 9th at the audition.

Audition packets will be numbered, this will be your child's assigned number. This will be used with the cast list and during rehearsals.

Auditions

Parent Volunteers

Activities (props, costume, backstage, ticket sales, and concessions) will be described on the audition packet, a parent is required to volunteer at least 5 hours for their child to participate. There are many areas where students need support to make a great show.

Students wishing to be on tech crew, set decoration, and props will fill out the crew application ($50 per student, no volunteer hours required) with the applicable box marked. Days and times for participation will be sent out via email to those positions.

Students will only be allowed 2 excused absences during rehearsals; any unexcused absences may result in loss of a role, removal from a scene, or from the show. Students experiencing Covid 19 symptoms or who are subject to quarantine per district guidelines should not come to rehearsal. They will not be considered absent if they complete independent study of rehearsal materials provided in the show's Google Classroom and complete a Google Form documenting their work. Google Classroom Code: iouxrld

Cost - $150 per student with 5 mandatory volunteer hours or additional $50 in lieu of the volunteer hours.
